

BELINDA DIGIAMBATTISTA

“Belinda has made a distinctly positive impact at the NYU Berkley Center. Her own experiences as a business owner lend credibility and depth to her advice, providing early-stage founders with practical and relatable guidance.”

Professor Cynthia Franklin

Exited Founder, Entrepreneur, & CEO, Belinda uses her expertise and motivating speaking skills to move audiences to make purposeful choices. Her real life examples show leaders how to be impactful with their influence, achieve a shared vision and deliver client value beyond expectations.

About Belinda

Belinda’s passion and natural ability to speak straight to the heart of her audience leaves them inspired and ready to accept their own personal call to action. She has delivered speeches to audiences ranging from company leaders to start-up entrepreneurs to employees at All Hands meetings. Her stories relate to where they are at that moment while taking them where they are eager to go. She encourages them through her story to believe in the power of their own story.

Whether you’re planning a motivational keynote, a panel of business experts, or a gathering that requires a specifically themed address in support of your agenda, Belinda will be sure to enthrall her listeners and leave them refreshed and prepared for all that’s to come.
